ABOUT US

Scott Christian University was established in 1962 as the national theological College of the Africa Inland Church Kenya to provide training for church ministries at an advanced academic level. Scott Christian University was named in memory of Peter Cameron Scott who led the African Inland Mission in Kenya in 1895 which developed Africa Inland Church as one of its ministries.

Scott grew and progressively upgraded its academic standards. In 1972, the entry requirement was raised to a minimum of a Secondary School Certificate, Level Three. A further upgrading of standards was done in 1982 with the introduction of a Bachelor of Theology (B.Th.) whereby the programme entry requirement was raised to a university level. This development was made possible through an arrangement with Ontrario Bible College, an accredited degree granting college in Toronto, Canada. The first B.Th. Students graduated from the college in1986.

In December 1979, Scott received its accreditation from Accrediting Council for Theological Education in Africa (ACTEA). It was the first post-secondary theological institution in Africa to receive such accreditation. In 1986, full accreditation of Scott's Bachelor of Theology degree programme was granted by ACTEA.

Scott was granted a charter by the Government of Kenya in 1997 after reworking on its academic programs and operations. Its Bachelor of Theology degree was accredited by Commission for University Education as a university level degree at the same time. The institution was granted permission to change its name to Scott Christian University by the Commission for University Education (CHE) on March 23, 2012.

Scott Christian University has subsequently expanded its academic offering to enhance a greater scope of service and ministry for transformation of the society. The University currently has three schools which include; School of Theology, School of Professional Studies and School of Education.

ALUMNI'S ADDRESS

Rev. Joshua Kimuyu

The Chief Guest Lord Dr. Michael Hastings, CBE of Scarisbrick, The Chancellor, Vice Chancellor, Board of Trustees, The University Council, The Presiding Bishop - AIC-Kenya, The Foundation Board, AIC Bishops present, Members of Parliament, Eminent guests, University Senate, Management, Staff, Graduands, Students, Parents, Guardians, Distinguished Guests, Ladies and Gentlemen,

Today like it has been to thousands of graduates for the last 57 graduation experiences at Scott is indeed a grand ceremony meant to celebrate the graduate's academic achievements.
It's a time when all those sleepless nights and random breakdowns become all worth it. We as well acknowledge the role played by the faculty members, parents and the entire Scott family for their never ending support and constant effort towards academic victories of many students over the years.
Today you are joining the out of school environment where we belong as the Alumni at a very interesting time; a time of post pandemic stress, economic downfall, political transition, educational reforms, generational dilemma, and health uncertainties.
Having been in this environment long or short as it may be, on behalf of the alumni Association of Scott Christian University, I want to encourage you today that you can survive all these times by being purposeful through the intentional choices you make from this day forward.
Let me highlight few areas that will need your intentional choice to survive

1. CONSIDER FAMILY

I know some of you may ask, how this is critical in the context of academia, yes it matters, family is where life begins and genuine love experienced. Family and friends is what makes who we are today and without them we are never complete. It is the strongest pillar and refuge. Anyone who desires to yield much out of his or her life must consider their families. Create time for them in the midst of commitments, respect the family and use the family as the fulcrum of all your operations and you will never regret.

2. CONSIDER YOUR STRENGTH AND WEAKNESS

Self-evaluation is the second area to be aware of if you have to survive the times. When everyone is shying off from acknowledging their weakness, wise people know that knowing their strength and weakness propel them to heights never imagined. You cannot find until you define. It is out of this you refine your focus and intentionally fun to flame your strength as you build on your weakness to achieve the optimum.

3. CONSIDER EQUIPPING SELF

Today marks a great foundation to this path of equipping self. The competition is higher than it never was before, competition in areas of excellence, academia, value addition, and quality of an individual. This is real and alive in the environment out there. For you to match this competition, I want to urge you to equip yourself with an intention to position yourself a point above other Diploma, Bachelor's degree, and Master's Degree holders. What is it that will make you stand out? Is it relationships? Is it character? Is it research, is it further studies?

Take advantage of those short courses, those conferences, government internship and now that you will be given the power to read, please read as a way of equipping yourself!

4. CONSIDER BALANCING YOUR SOCIAL MEDIA USAGE

Knowing what is important and what is necessary is a critical secret of survival in our times, while I know very well that we are graduating young people today who finds it enjoyable to stay on social media, it is important to be careful that the social media doesn't manage you, doesn't manage your work, doesn't manage your relationships. Please just manage it! We have many young people who are loosing great opportunities because they have refused to balance their social media usage. What do you post when angry, when happy, about your boss, how much time do you spend there? How is it hurting your relationship etc. Today it has become very obvious to tell someone's mood. Just visit their facebook page or the whatsapp status. Some of these platforms are of interest to employers and would wish to learn more about you. Your attitudes, your temperaments and so forth. The word here is BALANCE SOCIAL MEDIA USAGE.

5. SEEK TO HONOR GOD IN YOUR LIFE POST THIS GRADUATION

To honor God basically means that we recognize Him as the highest authority. We honor God from the realization that no person, power, spirit, or force can contend with His greatness and might. If this is our understanding about God, then it only makes sense to affirm to this congregation today on behalf of the alumni that to survive the times after this graduation, YOU NEED TO HONOR God who holds the times and seasons in his hands.

6. BUILD A SUPPORT SYSTEM

We've all heard that African Proverb "If you want to go fast go alone, if you want to go far go together" The description of our time suggest that you desire to go far rather than fast. If this speaks to your heart too, then you need a team. It is at this point that I take this opportunity to introduce to you your first friends, partners, and mentors - the alumni of Scott Christian University. Desire to be a part of what's happening. Through the alumni you have a link to the university, a link to the job market, a link to the growth forums. After this graduation, I welcome you to get in touch with our Secretary General Rev. Luke Odhiambo and he will guide you on the membership process and benefits.
Once again congratulation

May God bless you all and may God bless Scott Christian University.

VICE CHANCELLOR'S ADDRESS

Prof. Morompi Ole-Ronkei, PhD, EBS

The Chief Guest Lord Dr Michael Hastings, CBE of Scarisbrick, The Chancellor, Board of Trustees, The University Council, The Presiding Bishop - AIC-Kenya, The Foundation Board, AIC Bishops present, Members of Parliament, Eminent guests, University Senate, Management, Staff, Graduands, Students, Parents, Guardians, Distinguished Guests, Ladies and Gentlemen,

I welcome you to this 57th graduation of Scott Christian University.

Mr. Chancellor Sir,
Under the theme of "Purposeful living:" the journey to understanding my purpose and how to express it," we present to you today for the award of certificates, diplomas and conferment of degrees a total of 130 graduands distributed as follows:

Master's Degree – 5
Bachelors Degree – 75
Diploma – 30
Cetificate – 20

I wish to start by conveying my hearty congratulations to the graduating class of 2022, Congratulations! You have done it. We are proud of you all, you have made it. At the height of the fight for academic excellence, you battled the sea and fought the waves. You stayed strong and focused on the goal.

The fire in you gave rise to the light that you now bask in. You have completed this important phase of your career development and now you are ready to embark on a new journey of fulfilment. This is the reward for the years of hard work you have put in.

I now wish to welcome you to the reality–space where you will be expected to apply the knowledge that you have acquired. However, I would like to remind you that your Graduation today does not signify the end of your association with Scott Christian University. You should remain connected to your alma mater, this time as members of the University Alumni Association.

Mr. Chancellor Sir,
I would like to thank the lecturers and other university teaching and non-teaching staff for their tireless work that enabled graduands achieve this great milestone. This team sometimes went beyond their call of duty to ensure a conducive learning environment and experience for the graduands.

I thank the university community for their support. Throughout the pandemic period and even after, they have remained resilient and supportive to the institution even as we switched to innovative ways of learning after the traditional learning way was disrupted.

I would like to thank you Rev. Dr. Silas Yego, Bishop Emeritus and the Chancellor to our great University. You have been a great pillar of Scott Christian University. You have ensured we remain focussed to our mission and vision as a University.

I also thank the University Council for spearheading the transformative reforms that are now putting the University on a recovery trajectory towards sustainability. I thank the University Alumni Association for the great role they play in giving back to the University.

Mr. Chancellor Sir,
During the 2021 graduation, my focus was inward-looking and tapping into the nuclear, basic if not fundamental foundations of Scott Christian University. This includes the entity which gave birth to Scott: Africa Inland Church, Kenya. The Ten shilling challenge and the strategy to implement it, was birthed and presented during last year's Graduation ceremony. The plan for action was, and still is, to mobilise the church and get her to truly own her baby... Scott Christian University.

The idea is to get every AIC local church: From the cities to the villages; from the Great Rift Valley to the Kalamba mission station in Makueni - where Missionary Peter Cameroon Scott is burried.... From Kenya's Highlands down to the Coastal lowlands... From the top of Mount Kenya to the depths of Lake Victoria.. All to discuss Scott Christian University and to get every member of the church to contribute Ten shillings, three times a year (that is in April, September, & December), towards the growth of the University.

Ten shillings is the engagement scheme, a pact of partnership. It is the means to getting everyone, including children, to be involved and participate in owning the University. Ten shilling contribution is a paradigm shift in how we rethink about University Funding. It is unique for it is unprecedented.

The 8 million strong membership of AIC in Kenya, contributing Ten shillings per person will be a huge step in funding the affairs and development of this University. We believe that it takes the smallest steps like the Ten shillings, to leave the greatest footprints in the sands of time.
I am privileged to acknowledge the presence of the CEO of the University Funding Board, Mr. Geoffrey Monari, and to let him know that we are thinking "beyond" - if not outside the box. That is if the box ever existed.

Mr. Chancellor Sir,
Today, less than one year into the 10 shilling strategy, I can proudly report that the boat has set sail, and is already bearing fruit. As we gather here today, Kshs. 3.5 million has been raised with Makueni Area leading the pack with a collection of Ksh.710,085; Machakos Area follows with sh.622,228; Nairobi Area with sh.393,874; Kitui Area Ksh.292,744; Yatta with sh.238,745 and AIC Milimani with sh.140,790.

Indeed, the church is now discussing Scott Christian University. The young and the old are engaging in this conversation. The ultimate goal is to have a Christ-centered Africa Inland Church – Kenya, that is fully taking part and committed to the transformation of her own University.

Mr. Chancellor Sir,
An African proverb says Eating tough meat is always harder for a toothless lion. Well.. I am not toothless. And if I may invoke my heritage, let me confess my love for roast meat. My agemates call it nyama choma while young Kenyans have nicknamed it nyam-chom. Now, when you approach an Establishment where meat is being roasted, you are greeted by an irresistible, mouth-watering aroma.

Today, I can declare to you that I can smell the enticing success of Africa Inland Church – Kenya, transforming both the ministry and its University through the victory of the Ten shilling challenge; and setting the stage for the building of one of the most transformational Christian Universities in the continent of Africa.

I will repeat and place emphasis on the areas for which we shall be known – both locally and globally. The Machakos campus shall focus on Theology. The Konza campus shall focus on Information Communication Technology (ICT). Finally, The Kijabe campus shall focus exclusively on Health Sciences. We shall endeavour to be the best in each of these three core disciplines, all other fields of study notwithstanding.

We have now stirred up the pot "that is AIC." Finally, the giant is waking up, filled and brimming with a wonderful resolve. A resolve to be different, great and revolutionary. The conversation with AIC Bible Colleges has started. We have since signed MOUs with Ravine Bible College in Baringo County. Based on this, the Commission for University Education (CUE) visited and audited the proposed campus on 1st November 2022. We have also signed an MOU with Narok Bible College in Narok County, and with AIC Kijabe Mission Hospital for a Health Sciences campus to be domiciled there. I look forward to the day when all AIC Bible Colleges will have one harmonised curriculum, under the charter of Scott University, and, therefore, be recognised across Kenya and beyond.

Mr. Chancellor Sir,
As we are all seeing, the world is grappling with climate change. As the wells run dry, we are now realising the value of water. As floods sweep across our land, we face the harsh reality of mother nature exerting her revenge on humanity. Hence, as an institution, we choose not to be left behind in climate conversation. On matters climate change, mitigation measures and building resilience. This is a critical area which the whole world is focusing on. To that effect, we have signed an MOU with Kenya Forestry Research Institute (KEFRI) to enhance and crystalise our efforts to green the Konza campus.

Just like an eagle, I am convinced beyond any iota of doubt that the time has now come for Scott to shed off its old wings, grow new ones and start soaring again.

We are ready to start engaging with the International Community and seek partnerships in our areas of focus and in those that we seek to grow. In short, the new wings of the Eagle have reached maturity. They are ready for flight, and flying we shall do. As I challenged the graduation congregation last year, I will repeat the same mantra and say, "watch this space." Scott is destined for greater things.

Mr. Chancellor Sir,
Last year, we promised to have in place a University Foundation. Today, we can proudly report that we have a duly registered and fully functional Foundation: Scott Christian University Foundation. The Foundation, with seven (7) Board Members, has started the process of tabulating all AIC local churches across the country. This exercise is being done Area-by-Area. By the time we are done, the Church will have a very accurate database of church membership statistics. We shall be reporting on this to you this time next year.

Another First for us here at Scott is the registration of Scott Christian University Staff SACCO. Chaired by Dr. Daniel Barante from the School of Professional Studies, the SACCO was registered on 16th June, 2022 and now fully operational.

In the same spirit of transformation at the University, we shall be launching a 50-year strategic plan. Yes, you heard me right. 50 years or five decades! Is it not said by our people that a society grows great when old men plant trees under whose shade they know they shall never sit? We shall engage the stakeholders and ask one very simple question; "what do you want Scott to look like 50 years from today?" We shall seek to stretch the imagination of AIC stakeholders and dare them to think beyond the norm.

Mr. Chancellor Sir,
Universities are about collaborations. Scott Christian University has grown through these collaborations and is still seeking more networks and partnerships to attract resources for advancing its research agenda and for development of infrastructure. I have already assembled some of the top minds in the field of "future-thinking" to assist in this exercise. These are Dr. Katindi Sivi, Prof. Monica Kerrett-Makau, and Mr. Moses Kirumba Mwaura. This is a formidable team.

In the same spirit, we have assembled a powerful team of volunteer Communication experts. Led by Former NTV News Anchor, Daniel Mule, Alex Kiarie of Standard Media Group and Daniel Nyamai of United Nations. These individuals have offered their time and expertise to assist with communication and proposal writing.

In our quest to get water for the Konza campus, Living Water International, led by the Vice President, Africa, Dr. Victor Madziakapita and the Kenya Country Director, Eng. Daniel Githanji, have already pledged support of Kshs. 2 million towards the drilling of a Borehole at Konza. We are sincerely grateful to them.

Inspired by the efforts of Living Water, my dear friend and brother, Eng. Stephen Kiunga, Managing Director of Plansteel Engineering Company Limited, has offered to support us with steel frames and structures to support a 60,000 litre water tank at an elevation of at least 10 meters above the ground at the Konza campus. Water is life, and for that reason, I am looking for additional partners to complete the borehole drilling exercise at our Konza campus.

Mr. Chancellor Sir,
On Friday, 2nd September, 2022, we undertook the 1st Annual Campus to Campus Run and Walk. This is a 30 km run or walk from our Machakos campus to the Konza campus. As indicated, this will be an annual event. Absa bank came on Board as our lead sponsor alongside Standard Media Group. We shall, annually be seeking corporate and individual sponsors for the event. The sponsorship is based on Ten shillings for every One Kilometre covered. That is a minimum of Kshs. 300 to sponsor a student to cover the 30 km distance.

In September, 2022, three friends sponsored 100 students each. I now wish to recognize them and say a special thank you for their personal generosity to support the course. These are Senior Counsel Dr. John Simba, Principal State Counsel Dr. Jennifer Gitiri and Mr. Andrew Muthee Gitau of AMG Realtors. We have many others whose contributions sponsored 80, 70, 60, 50 students, among others.

The Second Annual Campus to Campus Run and Walk will be held on Friday, 1st September, 2023. I challenge all those gathered here today to start practicing for it or propose other ways of supporting it. The Alumni Association, chaired by the Bishop of Nairobi Area, Bishop Joshua Kimuyu and Rev. Luke Odhiambo Awino as Secretary General, was well represented at the Walk. To the Graduating class, I challenge you to come back and participate in the Run next year.

Mr. Chancellor Sir,
I would like to conclude by pointing out that Scott has crossed the valley. We are now on the other side of the ridge. As we sail to the harbour, I see a bright light, as the steeple spire emerges from the horizon of success. We are positioning ourselves to play in the big league of University Education. It is possible and real. To those of us gathered here today and beyond, I say to you: Watch this space.

Always remember, Scott Christian University belongs to us all. Once more Congratulations to the Graduating class of 2022.

Thank you and God bless you!
Prof. Morompi Ole-Ronkei, PhD, EBS
VICE-CHANCELLOR

AIC PRESIDING BISHOP'S ADDRESS:

Rev. Bishop. Abraham Mulwa

The Chief Guest Lord Dr. Michael Hastings, CBE of Scarisbrick, The Chancellor, Vice Chancellor, Board of Trustees, The University Council, The Foundation Board, AIC Bishops present, Members of Parliament, Eminent guests, University Senate, Management, Staff, Graduands, Students, Parents, Guardians, Distinguished Guests, Ladies and Gentlemen,

As the Presiding Bishop, I am honoured to welcome you all to this special occasion in Scott's calendar as we honour students' accomplishments. I extend my heartfelt congratulations to each and every graduate on their academic accomplishments, which represent the fruit of many years of commitment and effort. Of course, this is only a portion of the narrative. I encourage you to always stay true to yourselves, and to never give up on your dreams. Remember that you have the power to change the world, and never forget the importance of always lending a helping hand.

Ladies and Gentlemen,
As Christians, it is important that we support institutions that align with our values. Scott Christian University is a Christian university that is committed to providing a quality education grounded in biblical principles. When we support Scott Christian University, we are investing in an institution that is equipping the next generation of Christian leaders. The university is training students to think critically, to engage the world around them, and to boldly proclaim the gospel. We need more Christian leaders who are prepared to make a difference in the world, and Scott Christian University is helping to prepare them.

Graduands,
Education is not simply about grades; it's about growth. You have changed and developed during this challenging time, which unquestionably has made you better and contributed to your academic success. Your time at university may not have been exactly what you had hoped, but it should still be valued. Together, you and your classmates experienced all the victories and failures that made your path distinct and created a beautiful bond between you. The Bible has a lot to say about how we should live our lives. We are called to live purposeful lives, with meaning and intention. The book of Ecclesiastes tells us that there is a time and a season for everything. This means that we should make the most of every opportunity, because we don't know what tomorrow will bring. We are also told in Colossians 3:23 to "work heartily, as for the Lord and not for men." This means that we should put our all into everything we do, as if we are doing it for God himself.

Ultimately, the Bible calls us to live our lives for God's glory. This means living in a way that brings honour and praise to him. We are to be a light in the darkness, and a witness to the world around us. We are to live lives that reflect the love and grace of God.
Graduands,
Graduation is a time to celebrate our accomplishments and to reflect on what lies ahead. For many of you, it is a time of transition and change. A time to reflect on the past, and look forward to the future. For some, it's a time of sadness, as they realize they're leaving the comfort and security of home and embarking on a new chapter in their lives. For others, it's a time of excitement, as they can't wait to get out there and start exploring the world.
Whatever your feelings about graduation may be, it's important to remember that it's just a milestone in your life, not the end of the world. So take a deep breath, and enjoy the ride.

Finally, I would like to wish you all the best for the future. I know that you will all go on to do great things, and I look forward to seeing the impact that you will have on the world

Thank you and God bless you!
Rev. Bishop. Abraham Mulwa

COUNCIL CHAIRPERSON ADDRESS:

Dr. Joe Muchekehu

The Chief Guest Lord Dr. Michael Hastings, CBE of Scarisbrick, The Chancellor, Vice Chancellor, Board of Trustees, The University Council, The Presiding Bishop - AIC-Kenya, The Foundation Board, AIC Bishops present, Members of Parliament, Eminent guests, University Senate, Management, Staff, Graduands, Students, Parents, Guardians, Distinguished Guests, Ladies and Gentlemen,

First off, on behalf of the University Council, I would like to congratulate all the graduands for a job well done! You have been courageous and resilient in this journey to achieve your dreams. You overcame every obstacle by persevering during trying times. That is what we are expressing with great admiration. You succeeded, and thus made us victorious. We hope that graduating from Scott Christian University feels wonderful. Brothers and sisters, parents, guardians and all those who worked with you, and for you, share in this glorious moment.

The 57th graduation ceremony is a unique milestone, quite different from the past. It is a confirmation of how much the university has progressed over time. This university continues to make a name for itself. The leadership that Professor Morompi Ole-Ronkei provides as Vice Chancellor and the fantastic faculty that we have supported by a staff that is very aware of the academic needs of our students and how they should be met, proves that we have come of age.

The fact that we were able to admit highly intelligent students like you, is a symbol of our grit as a Christian learning institution that seeks to quench the academic thirst of our community. As you graduate today, we call on you to be our brand ambassadors, and make a bigger and better name for this institution out there.

Ladies and Gentlemen,
Several factors determine what an institution stands for. These include its mission and vision. The quality of a learning institution's alumni, their performance in the job market, coupled with the quality of life they live and their impact on the community, confirms the institution's enduring legacy. Fortunately, Scott Christian University has not failed on this. As you have probably realised by now, earning a certificate from Scott Christian University does not come easy. It takes time and patience. From this colourful event today, you have proved that tough times don't last, but tough people like you, do.

You are now on your way to establishing your professional worth by putting your abilities to test, and competing in the job market. Expectations are high, so set your goals higher and put in a lot of effort. Purposeful living is important because it gives our lives meaning and direction. Without a sense of purpose, we can easily fall into a life without meaning.

Graduands, as you start this new chapter, we wish you strength and endurance. Take advantage of the expertise and strength of the network you are now a part of. If you need guidance do not hesitate to consult with our alumni whom you are part of if you need guidance; they are at your service. While I am aware that advice is offered more freely than anything else in life, the network effect is more positive and profound.

Exciting as this may be, you are now a Scott Christian University alumni for life and there is no turning back. We hope you will embody this well-deserved status with pride. We hope that your sense of belonging to the ever-supportive university community remains a strong source of courage and ambition to succeed in years to come. Wear this on your sleeve with pride.

Ladies and Gentlemen,

I want us to take a moment to think about something that many of us have probably seen or experienced. That change is happening in the world around us, especially here in Kenya. We have probably advanced a century over the course of a generation. The most obvious example is in the field of technology, which is changing and advancing so quickly that it is difficult to foresee where you will be tomorrow. It is exceedingly impossible to predict what types of tools, techniques, mechanisms, structures, and employment opportunities may exist in the future. And this happens every day.

Most of you have likely read about Singapore's first autonomous taxi pilot. You may also have read about Tesla's self-driving cars. By the way, many do not know that the owner of Tesla - Elon Musk - who also happens to be one of the richest men in the world, is a son of this continent, from a nation called South Africa! The change you are witnessing now is not simply about things changing; it is about things changing quickly. And this has an impact on each of us as individuals and the nation as a whole. The pace is rapid. Yet the only constant is change.

And I believe that we must move quickly in order to survive. On a national level, you can only grow over a long period of time if you take care of the basic needs of citizens. These include health and education, which when combined with economic prosperity and growing wealth and money, are key to individual citizens' development.

However, the most crucial part is growing academic institutions that bring these ideologies together and create a synergy for success. In order to produce fantastic innovations, address specific problems that you are oriented to tackle.

To achieve this, we need technology combined with a wide range of social and human resources. However, it is obvious that as time goes by, technology will underscore much of what we do and serve as a catalyst for this nation's prosperity, just as it is in other nations throughout the world.
Those who are graduating today and moving into various professions, further studies or even research need to consider what this means to you and how it impacts you. Innovation is important because it is essential to the health of society, communities, and nations. If you don't innovate now, it is likely that you won't survive in the current dynamic world.

Ladies and Gentlemen,
As I conclude, I urge you to remember what Winston Churchill said about change, that 'to improve is to change; and to be perfect is to change often Congratulations to the class of 2022, and God bless you all!

Dr. Joe Muchekehu
CHAIRMAN, University Council.

UNIVERSITY CHANCELLOR'S ADDRESS:

Rev. Dr. Silas Yego

The Chief Guest Lord Dr. Michael Hastings, CBE of Scarisbrick, The Vice Chancellor, Board of Trustees, The University Council, The Presiding Bishop - AIC-Kenya, The Foundation Board, AIC Bishops present, Members of Parliament, Eminent guests, University Senate, Management, Staff, Graduands, Students, Parents, Guardians, Distinguished Guests, Ladies and Gentlemen,

It is a great honour to preside over this 57th Graduation Ceremony of Scott Christian University. To the graduands, I congratulate and applaud you on your individual and collective achievements on reaching this significant moment. This Graduation Ceremony is a culmination of excellent results brought about by your persistence, resilience and determination. Even as you celebrate this momentous achievement you have all reasons to thank the Almight God, many students started this academic journey with you but did not complete the journey.

American businessman and religious leader, Joseph Bitner Wirthlin, shared his reflections about a journey. Some of these were crystalized in one of his quotes, which says, 'Sometimes we make the process more complicated than we need to.' We will never make a journey of a thousand miles by fretting about how long it will take, or how hard it will be. We make the journey by taking each day step by step and then repeating it again and again until we reach our destination.

It thus gives me great pleasure to deliver this speech today by recognizing your accomplishments that is an embodiment of your diligence and hard work. Your dedication to purpose, and a determination to complete the journey that you embarked on, now culminates in the academic degree that will be bestowed upon you today. You never showed fear, indolence and despair. Instead, you rode on courage, wit and quest for academic excellence.

Your knowledge is potent. But since nothing is guaranteed, there is always some degree of uncertainty in life. But you were confident in your perseverance which has born success. As a result, today's celebration of your achievement brings us all a great deal of self and collective delight. You will all be university graduates as of this day.

Ladies and Gentlemen,
Graduation from a university is significant. It is a hopeful and exciting time as you move on to the next phase of your life - a life full of purpose. We should take a moment right now to remind ourselves why we attend university. Why are colleges and universities such crucial institutions?
A nation's human resources are its most important treasure. For its well-being, sustainability, and progress, the citizens' people's knowledge, abilities, and capacities are crucial. Every nation requires poets, philosophers, theologians, scientists, artists, engineers, historians, writers, medical professionals, educators, and entrepreneurs and intellectual in various facets of academia. People with this understanding are needed and indeed rare. They need heavy financial commitment and time to grow.

Our future is, nonetheless, unpredictable in the present. Conflict, hunger and imbalance abound in the world, and our perspectives are continuously shifting. Therefore, what we now know may be less significant than other university-related outcomes. However, a united humanity that is guided by love for one another is all we need to make it bearable. Mother Nature has enough for us all.

Second, this nation and the entire world now require individuals who can learn, adjust to change and influence others. To solve problems and create wealth, we need people who can think critically and creatively. We require team players, consensus-builders, actionable motivators and leaders. We require people who are driven and compassionate, with the thirst to exhale and support the success of others. The most crucial results of a university degree are these skills. They are the competences that contribute to a nation's sustainability and well-being.

These abilities were acquired throughout your time studying at Scott Christian University. You now have a strong foundation for success. You can now accomplish what you always dreamt of and live a purposeful life; one with a sense of purpose. The life ahead will not just be guided by the motions, but will be colored by positive intentions and meaning. A purposeful life is one that is not just about making money or achieving status, but leading a life of value and fulfilling.

Ladies and Gentlemen,
As per the university's mission, "To provide innovative and quality education training, research and mentorship for sustainable change of individuals for God's service", it is therefore your responsibility to live up to the expectations placed on you by our country's enlightened leadership. You have a chance to make history, to shape your story and that of others. You are now shaped to use your creativity and talent and improve the world. You have the ability to navigate the impending changes thanks to your intellectual tools, knowledge, skills, ethical commitments, and passion. For the future that you always harbored and looked forward to, begins now.

To honor everyone who has helped you along the way, I would like to speak on behalf of the entire university. We are grateful to the leadership of this institution for its wisdom. We appreciate the support of your parents or guardians, our lectures, staff, counselors, coaches, and friends. These folks all supported you in getting to where you are today, because they believed in your goals and ability. We are all indebted to them. They walked with you, to reach this far. A solitary walk is never a success.

Your education is not over after today's graduation. It marks a fresh start instead. Living a steadfast life is need not be hard, though it may be. However, it is a worthwhile endeavor lived by many but enjoyed by few. It is a life that is full of meaning and satisfaction. I now end this speech quoting yet another statesman, Benjamin Franklin, who said: An investment in knowledge pays the best interest. From today, your dividends await, but will never stop flowing your way.

God bless you, and God bless Scott Christian University!
Dr. Silas Yego, Bishop Emeritus

In the coming years, take pleasure in that membership and spread your enthusiasm for the University and your ties.

I hope everyone attending today's event will take a chance to explore Scott Christian University a bit more, and perhaps tell their friends and family about it when they return to their homes.

Ladies and Gentlemen,
As I conclude, I would like to remind the graduands that we, your University community of fellow graduates, students, and staff, wish you the very best for your future as you receive your degrees, diplomas and certificates. CONGREGATIONAL HYMN
All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name

All hail the power of Jesus' name!
Let angels prostrate fall.
Bring forth the royal diadem,
and crown him, crown him, crown him,
crown him Lord of all.

Crown him, you martyrs of your God,
who from His altar call;
Extol Him in whose path you trod,
and crown him, crown him, crown him,
crown him Lord of all.

O seed of Israel's chosen race
now ransomed from the fall, hail him who saves you by his grace,
and crown him, crown him, crown him,
crown him Lord of all.

Sinners, whose love can ne'er forget
The wormwood and the gall,
Go spread your trophies at His feet,
and crown him, crown him, crown him,
crown him Lord of all.

Let every tongue and every tribe responsive to his call,
to him all majesty ascribe,
and crown him, crown him, crown him,
crown him Lord of all.

Oh, that with all the sacred throng
we at his feet may fall!
We'll join the everlasting song
and crown him, crown him, crown him,
crown him Lord of all.
