

SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY
UNDERGRADUATE PROGRAM
THE314: Biblical and Theological Research
August-September Trimester, 2021.
Final Exam- 60%
Lecturer: Richard Owuor, MTh.

Instructions:

- i. Answer Question 1 (Compulsory) and any other 2 questions of your choice.
 - ii. Each question is 20 marks.
 - iii. Your responses should equate the weight of the questions to attain full marks.
-
1. Citing explanations, outline all the sections that are contained in a duly completed thesis document.
 2. A theology student submitted a term paper but apparently, the lecturer realized that the paper was plagiarized! Give your response to this student based on “plagiarism and the use of unfair means in essays.”
 3. John has just finished his course work in the master of theology program. He is therefore in search of a good topic to begin writing his research proposal. Explain to him the characteristics of a good research topic in Biblical and theological studies.
 4. Explain your understanding of qualitative and quantitative research approaches, then summarize the differences between them.
 5. Giving examples, describe the relevance of the following types of research to the community:
 - a. Basic research.
 - b. Observational research.
 - c. Evaluation research.

- d. Causal-comparative research.
- e. Action research.