B. Short Answer (15 marks)

1. In Theology 11, we have studied the doctrine of the Holy Spirit. What are two distinctives of the doctrine of the Holy Spirit in relation to the other two members of the Trinity? (3 marks)

2. Name and briefly describe two ways in which God's grace is evident in the world both to believers and unbelievers alike. (4 marks)
3. One result of our union with Christ (which happens during regeneration/conversion) is justification. A further result that occurs is adoption. Briefly describe what it means to be adopted, and mention three implications this doctrine has for our Christian lives. (4 marks)
4. The process of sanctification involves both the work of God and a human role/response. Explain how this process might work or look in our Christian lives according to Galatians 5: 16-26. (4 marks)

Section Two- Choose and answer any three questions. Each question is 10 marks

1. Sin against God spreads out into other areas of life such as in our relationships with others. Discuss the effects of sin in relation to others. (10 marks)
2. While people's conversion stories can and often do differ, what are the necessary acts required to take place in any given conversion? Define these acts that make up conversion, cite any Scriptural support for each, and lastly, mention how such an understanding of conversion ought to impact our teaching, preaching, and evangelism. (10 marks)
3. Discuss how the Holy Spirit empowered you in a specific situation of ministry. This could have been while doing evangelism or counseling, bible teaching or preaching, prayer or worship, or in some other ministry situation. Explain how you perceived the presence of the Holy Spirit at that time, or what made you aware of his presence. (10 marks)
4. Taking into account your understanding of the doctrines of sin, sanctification and perseverance, how might you appropriately and sensitively counsel an AIC pastor who has fallen into sin and even tried to commit suicide because of it? Consider ways that you could encourage or challenge him as you seek to guide and counsel him in the midst of this difficult situation. (10 marks)
